JANUARY 2026

FROM THE DESK OF GENERAL SECRETARY

Dear Members/Associate Members,

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty night,
The year is dying in the night,
Ring out wild bells and let him die,
Ring out the old, Ring in the New,
Ring Happy Bells, across the snow,
The year is going, let him go,
Ring out the false, Ring in the true

-Lord Alfred Tennyson.

Lord Alfred Tennyson welcomed the new year in his poem. He observed that the New Year marks the beginning of a fresh start and brings a season of joy and hope for a better life and better world.

Decades have passed since the 19th century poet wrote the poem, but our sentiments regarding the New Year remain the same. At the stroke of midnight on December 31st every person around the world bids goodbye to the old year with its bitterest memories and experiences.

As we gear up to bid farewell to 2025 and welcome 2026, New Year's day begins with festivities. It is time for families and friends to gather, enjoy feasts, exchange gifts and share best wishes. Around the world people embrace the day as a moment of new beginnings, celebrating in diverse ways reflective of their cultural traditions.

Many believe that one's actions on the first day of the year set the tone for the rest of it. While for some New Year's Day is an occasion for joyous gatherings and parties, for others it holds cultural or religious significance.

Even though the Gregorian calendar is widely recognised, many cultures and religions observe their own New Year's Day.

Despite global celebrations on 1st January, India's cultural diversity is reflected in various regional New Year observances. Tamil Nadu celebrates Tamil Puthandu while Telangana, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka observe Ugadi. Baisakhi is celebrated in Punjab, Bhog Bihu in Assam and Gudi Padwa in Maharashtra.

New Year's Day is an opportunity for reflection, resolutions and fresh starts. It is a time to let go of the past and embrace positivity and move forward with hope and anticipation. It is time when we can decide what we want to do better or change in our lives. The day fosters unity as families and communities come together to celebrate, strengthen bonds and create lasting memories.

Like any festival, New Year's Day inspires kindness, compassion and love. It encourages us to leave behind negativity and embrace the promises of a better future. As we step into 2026 let us ring in a year of kindness, peace and joy. May it bring exciting developments, personal growth, prosperity countless moments of laughter, fun, frolic and happiness for all.

As we welcome the New Year let us remember that every day is a new opportunity to make a difference in our lives and the lives of others. The year ahead is full of endless possibilities.

We hope the ongoing geopolitical conflicts between Russia and Ukraine war, the devastating Palestine and Israel War, escalating crisis in Sudan, Myanmar plus heightened regional instability across the Middle East, geopolitical friction between major powers like USA, China and Russia, India and Pakistan, all contributing to increased global militarisation and humanitarian challenges will end in 2026 and the world emerges as an abode of peace.

Here is to a bright New Year and a fond farewell to the old, here is to the things that are yet to come and to the memories that we hold. Wishing you a joyous 2026 filled with peace, love, laughter, happiness, blessings, good health and unforgettable moments and sweet memories.

On the auspicious occasion of Makara Sankranthi, may God bless you all with good health, love happiness, cheers, peace and prosperity.

WE WISH ALL OUR MEMBERS/ASSOCIATE MEMBERS HAPPY MAKARA SANKRANTHI, PONGAL, MAGH BIHU AND LOHRI.

OUR PERSONAL WORLD

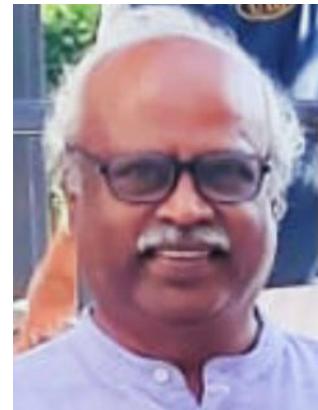

We can't traverse every place on earth,
Nor occupy each pinnacle of worth.

Not every book can we read and know,
Nor master every art that may grow.

Our limits define our mortal frame,
Yet excellence is ours to claim.

In every role, we shine or fade,
Our personal world, though small, is made.

The world may be vast, wide, and grand,
But in our sphere, we take a stand.

THE STORIES WE LIVE AND LEAVE

Our lives unfold like pages of poetries, turned,
Stories of joy, of sorrow, of escapades, faced.

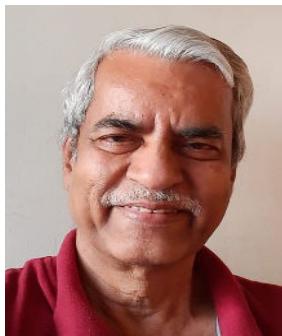

Some are short and brief, like comics and fleeting tales,
Others like epics, with memories that prevail.

Each life a narrative, unique and grand its own,
With heroes, villains, and an unpredicted plan.

Players experience it all: pain and delight,
Jealousy, sadness, kindness, peace, and love's warm light.

Every tale ends, and a final page is turned,
A conclusion is reached and a life's lesson learned.

Though tragic ends may come, and goodbyes are too sad,
Our stories retained as legacy, make us glad.

A DAY WITHOUT GETTING SCOLDED IS A DULL DAY!

By: Laxman Gorlakatte

Mem No 2902

Mob No: 9886728829

When someone scolds you, what is your first reaction?

Most likely you may become angry. You may start abusing the person who scolded you. Then arguments, heated exchange of abuses may follow. Each one may try to outwit in choosing abusive language. Some people may, rarely, ignore and move on. If you are one of those, hats off to you!

But is there any different and a better way to deal with such a situation?

For the sake of discussion let us imagine that someone calls you names and comments "You are a thief"!

Instead of reacting can you reflect upon the comment?

Did you steal anything? If yes, then it is time you reform yourself and stop stealing. A factual feedback given by the abuser should be taken up as a wakeup call. The abusing person needs to be thanked (even if within your mind) for the comment, instead of reacting.

Supposing you did not steal and you have never stolen anything, the person abusing you might be jealous of your success or some quality which he/she lacks or may be he/she is suffering from inferiority complex. Pity him/her for that and move on. May be he/she is mentally sick. Pity him/her. Ignore the comment. Still better respond with a smile.

SET TO CROSS MILE STONE

Attaining 75 years of age is a milestone in the life of a retiree. Though statistically, longevity of life has increased, we are coming across several instances where many souls depart from us even before reaching the above milestone. Under such circumstances, it is really a cause for greeting the retirees who are set to reach the milestone and enthuse them to tread along. With this objective and in response to desires of several members that CBROA News features a list of members who are crossing 75 years of age during JANUARY 2026.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS

CBROA WELFARE SCHEMES

CBROA has been assisting members though in small measure, as an expression of solidarity with the beleaguered members at the hour of their grief/crisis. The entire scheme is borne mostly out of generous Donations from the members. While the CBROA thanks the donors for and on behalf of all the beneficiaries, it seeks generous and regular donations in this endeavour to stand by the members at their time of need. CBROA appeals to members for regular donations on the occasion of birthday celebration of their dear ones, say – Self, Spouse, Children, and Grandchildren and derive satisfaction of donating for a cause.

Medical Relief paid during the month of December 2025.

Dear friends,

Many members are voluntarily opting out of CBROA welfare scheme (Medical reimbursement scheme) and sending mails, WhatsApp messages. We are finding it difficult to consolidate. Hence, we have devised a google form to enable us to consolidate it. Please use the below mentioned link, in case if you wish to opt out of the welfare scheme.
